

An Evening at DH Ranch

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FOR EDUCATORS

"Unleash the power of communication with the spirit of the horse, and gain cultural and diversity understanding for a brighter classroom tomorrow!"

Objectives:

- To improve communication skills with children, including active listening, using age-appropriate language, and responding to their needs and concerns.
- To learn about Indigenous history and the impact it has had on our society, in order to gain a better understanding of Indigenous peoples' experiences and to promote healing and reconciliation.
- To understand and appreciate diversity among children, including differences in culture, race, ethnicity, religion, and ability, in order to create a safe and inclusive environment for all children.
- To participate in Truth and Reconciliation efforts by learning about the history and experiences of Indigenous peoples, acknowledging past wrongs, and working towards meaningful reconciliation.
- To understand the power of sharing circles, including their ability to build community, facilitate communication and understanding, and promote healing and growth.

Date: May 24, 2023

Time: 5-8PM

Fee: $250

Limited Spots Available!

Snacks & Refreshments included, No horse experience is necessary

Sonya Dodginghorse, B.Ed., EAL Facilitator

Sonya Dodginghorse has merged her love for horses with her teaching expertise to create unique programs that promote Indigenous culture and history. With over two decades of experience as a classroom teacher and a Bachelor of Education, she shares her skills and knowledge to help others grow through horse-assisted programs. Sonya is also a role model and advocate for Indigenous people, with her experience as a professional barrel racer and two-time INFR World Barrel Racing Champion.

The DH Ranch Team is dedicated to helping individuals develop the skills and knowledge necessary to succeed in both their personal and professional lives. They take great pride in their ability to inspire and encourage individuals to reach their full potential and are passionate about creating a supportive and collaborative environment for all.

An unforgettable experience!

